Summary

A micro fic in The Legend of Zelda universe. Link sighs as Malon, Ruto and Zelda argue.

- A translation of Dispute by MiaQc

Link sighs as Malon, Ruto and Zelda argue about who will date him today. He would have liked to tell them that he can have a romantic moment with the three women, but he's mute and he can't write. He can read, that's enough. When Ruto starts pulling on Zelda's hair and Malon wants to bite Ruto's arm, Link growls in frustration. He tries to separate them, to no avail. Thus Link does the only logical thing to do. He leaves, abandoning the women with their childishness.
